SPORTS

NO GAIN!

They leave Weave with the confidence of a winning gun, with their heads held high and their horns. They may not bring home a prize in order to increase their wealth, though you can't doubt that the game is a possibility. But then, they don't come here for money, and there is no "success" in that. They and the others here understand that success is the product of victory. Here at the Weave, it's free.

On the following pages we will meet our outstanding young winners and losers, those who represent our pride in education, those represented in athletic competition,

FOOTBALL

1st - Goshan Montgomery, Shawn Darling, Joe Dakers, Rondell Tyson, Leon McCloud, John Richardson. 2nd - John Paul Jones, Josue Zamora, Anthony Lucas, Kevin Bennett, Julian Scott, Deadrick Calhoun, Derek Jackson, Marquise Swaby. 3rd - Jamal Foy, Kevin McCourey, Nick Ellis, Dean Jones, Keon Lee, Karendu Grant, Terrod Kerr, Corey Johnson, LaTroy Oliver, Stephen Thomas, Larry Young, Maurice Mitchell. 4th - Scque Fullerton, Edward Harrison, Leonard Williams, Derek Johnson, Lanier Lumpky, Eugene McClarey, Calvin Halliday, Aaron Gause, Ron Herrera, Derek Sheets. 5th - Angelica Candelaria, Robert Fleeting, Arnold Kennedy, David Hodge, Tim Sullivan, Chuck Night, Sam Ferdinand, Katie-Ann Stuart, Alecia Steele.

The football team completed the 1995 campaign with an 8-2 regular season record. The seniors, Tyson, Dakers, Darling, Richardson, Montgomery and McCloud provided the needed leadership while Coach Hodge and his staff had the team well prepared, thanks in part to a week at Camp Roland, "The Plantation". The team won the city series and finished second in the CCC West, after a heartbreaking loss to Bloomfield. Weaver's first ever playoff appearance ended in disappointment as they lost to Cheshire, the eventual state champs. Many school records were broken and Tyson and Darling were named to the 1st team All-State team.

Shaun Darling with a little aid from team-mate Joe Dakers Jr., gives a Conard player a burning taste of the Dam. (He Scores)

Middle:

With tough blocking by the line of the Green Machine and the perfect hand-off from Goshan Montgomery, Shaun Darling runs to glory.

Left:

With sheer Strength of Will and Power of Body, Josue "Moose" Zamora teaches a Conard linebacker the fundamentals of being "Trucked". Previous page far left: With one last desperate attempt, Conards defense tries to stop Shaun Darlings scoring frenzy.

SOCCE

The 1995 soccer season for the Weaver Girls Soccer Team was one of hopeful despair. The girls started out the season with the triumph of two consecutive wins which brought to the minds of each player a desire for victory in games to come. The girls were then disappointed when they found out two of their best players could no longer play the rest of the season. The loss of their defensive player Ulandi Adams and midfielder Marvalee Mitchell left the team with two spots that were difficult to fill. The team fought out the rest of the season still holding within them the desire for victory. It was a tough season which left the Weaver girls soccer team with only 3 wins. The girls never gave up hope which made each one a winner in her own mind. Coach Chet Capiga and Keith Temple stuck it out with the girls giving continual encouragement. Seniors Candice, Ulandi, Keisha, Fara, Marvalee, and Carron will not have another chance to prove themselves on the Weaver soccer team but some will go on to bigger and better battles.

Keisha Boyd is on her way to score another goal.

The Weaver volleyball team had another good season. The team was lead by captains Danalee Dias and Orleath Gray. To round out the predominately senior team players were Samoria Kelsey, Gislane Vega, Delicia Lambert, Teshia Levy, and our outstanding consistent junior, Tian Anglin. Honors went to Danalee as our M.V.P., Orleath our M.I.P., and Samoria made All-Conference team. Through hard work and spirit, we made it to the first round of the tournament in Greenwich. Our record was 9-10. This was another successful season.

This has been the teams best season in its history. Having 7 out of 14 medal winners in the State L Division Tournament brought the wrestling team the title of 2nd in the state and ranked with the top 10 teams in the state. We also took 2nd in the CCC West League for the 1st time. And another trophy brought home by our outstanding freshman at their tournament. Special thanks goes to our departing seniors past and present, Captain Herbert Banks, James Roberson III and 1st year wrestler Ronald Andrews who helped keep the Mean Green Machine running.

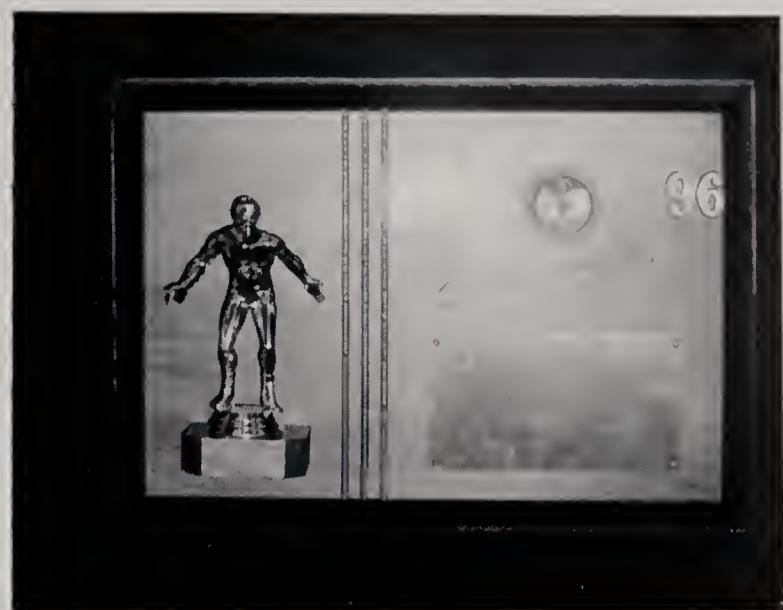

(right) That's Ron thinking that to get to the body, you have to go through the head.

With the number of seniors on the team this year we should have started off well. We had a slow start and then came on in the middle. Some of the seniors made huge improvements which made the difference in the middle of the season. We played well in the tournament with the exception of our last game against Xavier.

It was another outstanding year for the Weaver Cheerleaders. During the summer they did an exceptional job at the National Cheerleading Association Camp. Colinda Minnifield was selected as a NCA All American. At the Holy Cross Cheerleader Competition, Weaver placed first and in the University of Hartford competition they placed third. The squad received letters of recognition for their outstanding showing from the State Representatives.

CHEERLEADERS

Long hours of practice paid off for the large squad of 17 young women. Crowds at Football and Basketball games were enthusiastic in their response to many new talents that the cheerleaders demonstrated. Transitional pyramids were as popular as their contemporary and collegiate dance routines. The squad's new outfits put the icing on their showmanship. To pay for all these activities the cheerleaders conducted fund raisers including meals for staff on Inservice days, bowling parties, and an end of the year dance.

Untitled

By: Kejuan L. Dillard

Turn on the TV, the news is on, 15 year-old pregnant girl shot down she's gone. They saved the baby, although, he may not make it. Senseless violence don't know if I can take it. See a kid I grew up with on the corner sellin', will he be around tomorrow? Ain't no tellin'. They say Bosnia is making a push for peace; what about America? Where's our peace?

a piece of the pie we were promised;
we deserve; instead, all I see is corruption being served. Going to college to get my education, knowing when I get out I might not have a place in this nation.

Rich man in his mansion wondering what stock he's going to buy, junkie in the alley wondering how he'll get his next high.

Too many people dying of A.I.D.S., the stories I hear today make my eyebrows raise. Mother beats her two-month old cause she won't stop crying; young father turns away his new born son he's denying. Brothers disrespecting sisters treatin' them mean back in ancient times Black women were queens. Laying in bed at night sometimes I cry looking at the ceiling wondering why. Walking down the streets where I'm always feared, when this country was built on my blood, sweat, and tears. Brothers and sisters lookin for someone to blame; pointing the finger at a white face with no name. You can blame the white man, yeah;

he started it all, but physical slavery is over, the mental has to fall. See some walk around here still thinking that they own us, turning us down giving their brothers and sisters the bonus.
It's time we unite, see we gotta have a plan, every dollar we get it leaves the Black community's hands.
Cracking jokes on the Koreans and people of India, walk in their stores it's us you see in there, spending every nickel, every dime, every cent, meanwhile their cracking jokes on us; we're paying their rent. They say a revolution is coming. Are you prepared?
Putting my faith in God so you know I'm not scared. Don't get me wrong all races have to unite, but I have to be able to shake a black man's hand before I can shake the hand of a white, or Asian, Native American, or Latino. The hate we have today can affect the generations of tomorrow. So instead of building prisons, let's build some schools, invest in the children; they're no fools. Although I feel we should help other countries, it hurts when my government doesn't think first about me; like others we too have people who are homeless out there, the budget can't be that tight Uncle Sam has some money to spare. Time waits for no man full speed ahead it's moving, it's up to us what song our children will sing. The song of Love or the song of Hate; make a decision quick the future awaits!
